

CAPINTRO NOMINATED FOR BEST SERVICE PROVIDER AT HEDGE FUNDS WORLD MIDDLE EAST AWARDS

Dubai, UAE, March 11th 2009 – Capintro Partners, Limited (“Capintro”) an investment placement specialist with a focus on introducing global alternative investment managers to investors, announced that it was nominated and short listed for the 2009 Hedge Funds World Middle East Award for Best Service Provider.

“We are pleased to have been selected as a finalist for this award. This recognition is an endorsement of the value added services we provide our investors and global fund managers” said Mahmoud Al-Khawaja, CEO of Capintro.

Capintro was one of six finalists from a wide pool of nominations for the Best Service Provider award category. Other finalists for this award were DTCC, DerivSERV, Simmons and Simmons, AlphaMetrix and Apex Fund Services. Hedge Funds World Middle East is a premier annual networking organization for regional investors, best international hedge fund managers and investment strategists.

Finalists from category were selected based on the decision of an independent panel of expert judges who ranged from consultants to financial journalists and professors. The award was given in recognition of the nominee’s efforts over the past year in terms of its breadth of innovative product offerings that added value to the advancement of the hedge fund industry, their track record of servicing Middle Eastern clients and their knowledge of and expertise in the market.
